THE TREE

I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree.

A tree whose hungry mouth is prest,
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast.

A tree that looks at God all day
And lifts her leafy arms to pray;

A tree that may in summer wear
A nest of robins in her hair;

Upon whose bosom snow has lain;
Who intimately lives with rain.

Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.

Joyce Kilmer.

Dedication

APPRECIATION is an intangible quality, it can be expressed only through some outward token. Therefore, as a concrete symbol of our sincere appreciation, we dedicate this volume of the nineteen twenty three Kay Aitch Ess to Lloyd S. Brumbaugh, our principal, who has been a loyal supporter of our class.

Foreword—

*P*LEASANT thoughts of true fellowship with High School friends and faculty, now vivid and seemingly indelible, will gradually fade and pass.

To preserve these memories for future moments of enjoyment is the object of the nineteen twenty three volume of the Kay Aitch Ess.

MR. DIXON

Mr. Dixon, superintendent of the schools has shown a keen interest in High School affairs during the two years he has been with us.

He has been an ardent booster for the community and we feel that with Mr. Dixon backing the school program, great things will be accomplished not only for High School but for the Schools as a whole.

We wish opportunity and success for Mr. Dixon.

MR. BRUMBAUGH

Lloyd S. Brumbaugh, our new principal, came to us from Huntington.

He received his A.B. degree at Terre Haute State Normal in 1917 and also attended Columbia University.

He served eighteen months overseas as first lieutenant in the field artillery and fought in five battles including the battles of Cantigny, Montidier-Noyon, Aisne Marne, St. Mihiel, and Meuse-Argonne.

We extend to Mr. Brumbaugh our best wishes for happiness and success in the future.

The work of the Board of Control has been very successful this year, especially in the financing of athletics. The tournament was carried on very successfully under the supervision of Mr. Brumbaugh, chairman, and much credit is due to him.

So all night long the storm roared on:
The morning broke without a sun;
On tiny spherule traced with lines
Of Nature's Geometric signs,
In starry flake, and pellicle,
All day the hoary meteor fell;
And, when the second morning shone,
We looked upon a world unknown,
On nothing we could call our own.
Around the glistening wonder bent
The blue walls of the firmament,
No cloud above, no earth below,—
A universe of sky and snow!

—Whittier.

Afterwhile—and we will go
Thither, yon, and to and fro—
From the stifling city-streets
To the country's cool retreats—
From the riot to the rest
Where hearts beat the placidest;
Afterwhile, and we will fall
Under breezy trees, and loll
In the shade, with thirsty sight
Drinking deep the blue delight
Of the skies that will beguile
Us as children—afterwhile.

—James Whitcomb Riley.

SENIORS

RICHARD MISSELMHORN. President of the Class, '22, '23; Editor of the Annual; Secy. of the Hi-Y, '21, '22; Pres. of Hi-Y, '22; Board of Control; Glee Club, '22, '23; Drum Corps; Audubon Club; "Fifty-Fifty," '22; "A Pair of Sixes," '23. Everyone knows the funny side of "Dick's" life but few the serious side. We prophecy you'll find him on some lonely mountain, writing poetry, digging sassafras, etc.

VICTOR LASH. Asst. Editor of the Annual; Vicc-Pres. of the Class, '23; Hi-Y Club, '20, '21, '22; Glee Club, '22, '23; Quartet, '22, '23; Pres. of the Class, '20. Everyone likes "Dick," especially—, but why shouldn't they, eh! "Midge?"

MARCELLA MEYER. Class Secy., '23; Pres. O. K. Club; Glee Club, '22, '23; Parnof Players; Audubon; Basketball, '22, '23; Marcella is always foremost in basketball, grades and all school activities.

BIRDENA ADDICKS. Blue Triangle, '22, '23; Parnof Players. Birdena leans towards the artistic side of life. Here's success to Birdena and Cincinnati.

RUTH ALBRIGHT. Secy. of Blue Triangle, '21, '22, '23; Glee Club, '23. We have not only wondered at Ruth's ability as an authoress but also to fill all of her other duties to perfection.

LENA ANDERSON. Glee Club, '21, '22, '23; Blue Triangle, '22; Parnof Players, '23. Well; Well; Yes Lena really decided to graduate with our class, but say, did you ever see such (?)—eyes?

DOROTHY AREHART. Blue Triangle, '21, '22, '23. She never made an over amount of racket, but you know—"Speech is silver, silence is golden."

GLENN AREHART. Hi-Y, '22, '23. We will admit that Glenn is rather small but—"valuable goods are always done up in small packages."

KAY AITCH ESS

THEO AUNGST. Nothing seems to worry Theo. Least of all are grades! He always gets them however, and keeps everyone else around him laughing, too.

TALITHA BOWEN. Glee Club, '23; Blue Triangle, '22, '23; Audubon; Society Editor of the Annual. Who said Talitha didn't like to dance? No one, but that's what gives her that perpetual smile for everyone.

WALTER BOLTON. Vice-Pres., '22; Basketball, '22, '23; Football, '23; "Fifty-Fifty," '22; "A Pair of Sixes," '23; Glee Club, '22, '23; Hi-Y, '21, '22, '23; Quartet, '22, '23; K Club, '22, '23; Joke Editor of Annual, '23; Yell leader, '22; Parnof Players. Not only a songster but also an all around athlete. What more could you want—Peggy?

WALTER BUCKS. Glee Club, '22; Quartet, '22; Radio Club, '22, '23; School Reporter, '22. Although Walter left us at the end of the first semester, we haven't forgotten him. We are positive that O-N-E hasn't.

PAUL BORDEN. Hi-Y, '19. We recommend a long rest for Paul, because anyone who has studied (?) as hard as he has, should be in need of a vacation.

BERTHA BILLMAN. Blue Triangle, '21, '22, '23; "Bert" never talked much around school, but if you want to hear her get started, just drop into the Palace of Sweets some Sunday afternoon.

GERTRUDE CLINE. Treas. of the Blue Triangle, '21, '22, '23; Glee Club, '22, '23; Audubon, '23; Literary Editor of the Annual. Gertrude is one who studied, but she also liked her fun. She is the kind who will find success when the race is won.

ROBERT CALKINS. Athletic Editor of Annual; Pres. of class of '20; Basketball, '20, '21, Capt. '22, '23; Football, '20, '23; Track, '20, '21, '22, '23; Baseball, '21; K Club, '20, '21, '22, '23; Parnof Players; Hi-Y Club, '22, '23; Glee Club, '21, '22, '23; "Fifty-Fifty;" "A Pair of Sixes." In every sport that has come along, "Bob" was a "big man." Next year they will need another giant to bring the victories home.

KAY AITCH ESS

MARGARET CANODE. Cartoonist for Annual; Sec. and Treas. of O. K. Club; Sec. and Treas. of the Class, '20; Basketball, '21, '22, (Capt.) '23; Pres. of Glee Club, '22, '23; Orchestra, '21, '22, '23; Blue Triangle, '21, '22. When it comes to basketball or tennis; in fact most any sport, "Peggy's" right there. She can play a violin a l-i-t-t-l-e, too.

ESTHER DETERING. She gives unto everyone her ear but few her voice.

GRETTA FULERTON. O. K. Club; Glee Club, '22; Blue Triangle, '21, '22, '23; "Fifty-Fifty," '22; Oratorical Club; Basketball, '21, '22, '23. Gretta is artistic, athletic and oratorical. What more could anybody want?

BOBERT FOEHL. Business Manager of Annual; Student Manager, '21, '22; Board of Control; Glee Club, '22, '23; K-Club; Baseball, '21; "A Pair of Sixes," '23. "Bob" has been a great help to our class, especially in making several trips to Chicago (??) in the interest of the Annual.

MARJORIE HAWKINS. Blue Triangle, '21, '22, '23; Parnof Players; Glee Club, '22, '23. 'Tis said, "Her fingers are like elves, they dance on the Keys." What keys? Typewriter keys, of course!

BEATRICE HOVARTER. Blue Triangle, '22, '23; Beatrice is from the country and she's proud of it, never the less she says, "A country boy will do."

MILDRED HENRY. Blue Triangle, '21, '22; Parnof Players; O. K. Club, '23; Girls' Athletic Editor of the Annual; Basketball, '21, '22, '23; Glee Club, '21, '22, '23; Fifty-Fifty, '22; "A pair of Sixes," '23. Mildred makes many friends and keeps them too. (Especially "Vic.")

PHOEBE KIMMEL. We don't know so much about Phoebe, except that he favorite color is "White."

KAY AITCH ESS

HELEN KELLNER. Blue Triangle, '21, '22, '23. Helen is always giggling and she likes to study too! Especially the last period, but what's the difference as long as she pulls down those A's.

CLIFFORD LIKES. Hi-Y, '20, '21, '22, '23. We used to say that Clifford hailed from the country, but we can't say it any more. Well, South Bend isn't a bad place to live after all.

BERNIECE MCINTURF. She has no other but a woman's reason, "I think him so, because I think him so!"

BEATRICE NEWNAM. Blue Triangle, '21, '22, Pres. '23; Parnof Players; Basketball, '23; Glee Club, '23; Audubon, '23; Quotation Editor of Annual. "Bee" has been a real help in many ways. She stood for the best in the way of social life as well as being a booster for Senior Scholarship.

DOROTHY NELSON. Basketball, '22, '23; O. K. Club, '23; Blue Triangle, '22, '23; Parnof Players; Joke Editor of Annual; "Fifty-Fifty," '22; "A Pair of Sixes," '23. Dorothy does not profess to be a naturalist but we hear she is very much fascinated by a certain (?) "Rock."

MAYNARD PRAY. Quotation Editor of Annual; Parnof Players; Glee Club, '23; "Fifty-Fifty," '22; "A Pair of Sixes," '23. This shy little boy from the ah— suburbs has a friend in everybody, especially the ladies.

HAZEL POPPY. Blue Triangle, '21, '22, '23; Parnof Players; Audubon; Sec. and Treas. of Class, '21. Our official vamp. They say, she has "a sweetheart in every port."

KENNETH RYMAL. Hi-Y, '22, '23; Glee Club, '22, '23; Basketball, '23; Track, '22, '23; K-Klub, '23; Quartet, '22, '23. If in need of advice on how to drive Fords, see Rymal; he drives them wrong side up! Honest.

ALLENE ROMMES. Blue Triangle, '21, '22, '23; Audubon. Aliene may be rather short, but what she lacks in height she makes up for in noise. She always wears a smile and was never known to look blue.

RUBY SHOUP. Blue Triangle, '21, '22; Parnof Players; O. K. Club; Basketball, '22, '23; Glee Club, '20, '21, '22, '23; Snap Shot Editor of the Annual; "Fifty-Fifty," '22; "A Pair of Sixes," '23; Ruby's got the snap so we made her snap shot editor of the Annual. Ruby is fond of "Grubbs."

MARTHA SPRANDEL. Audubon. She speaks, acts and behaves just as she ought.

GENEVIEVE SALLER. Although she had enough credits to leave us last semester, she liked us so well that she stayed another semester.

KENNETH SMITH. Hi-Y, '22, '23; Asst. Business Manager of the Annual; "A Pair of Sixes," '23. He accomplished great things during his senior year. It is rumored that he had a date, "onct."

MARY STREB. We know Mary is going to teach school, if she doesn't go to Texas.

VEVIA SECRIST. Glee Club, '22, '23; Blue Triangle, '22. Although a maiden of few words. Vevia is a sincere friend of those who know her.

HAROLD SMITH. Fate tried to conceal him by naming him Smith.

KAY AITCH ESS

BEATRICE SHIPPY. Blue Triangle, '23; Secy. of Audubon; Parnof Players. Since Beatrice was only with us one year, some of us didn't know her very well, but we are sure her friendship would be worth seeking.

KLYTA SAWYER. Audubon; Blue Triangle, '21, '22, '23; Glee Club; Parnof Players; Calendar Editor of the Annual; "Fifty-Fifty," '22; "A Pair of Sixes," '23. The things that she can boast of are: That she never giggles, or becomes angry, especially when someone speaks of Wawaka (?).

ROSA SHIPPY. Rosa is another who came to us this year. She didn't pay much attention to the fellows around school, but maybe some country lad has already stolen her heart.

LAWRENCE VANVOORHIES. Hi-Y, '20, '21, '22, '23; Pres. of Oratorical Club; Audubon; Circulation Mgr. of the Annual; "A Pair of Sixes," '23. He could distinguish and divide a hair twixt south and southwest side, and either, of which he would dispute.

ROY WAGNER. Asst. Sales Manager of the Annual; Glee Club, '21; School Reporter, '23; Treas. of the Hi-Y, '22, '23; Vice-Pres. of Oratorical Club; Parnof Players; "A Pair of Sixes," '23. Roy is stepping out as a debater and orator. Good luck to you "Senator."

HAZEL WHITMER. M-A-R-R-I-E-D.

MAY WARBLE. Blue Triangle, '21, '22. Of course her pink cheeks are not artificial? But say, "Ain't nature grand?"

LIVONIA ZONKER. Audubon; Blue Triangle, '21, '22, '23. Livonia always has a smile for everyone, especially those who have been so fortunate as to visit "The Old Home Town"—Corunna.

CLASS HISTORY

It seems as though only yesterday that we, now on that long list of "has beens," were making our timid bow to Kendallville High School.

Under the kindly influence of Miss Valenti, we were guided through the year. Through the efforts of Robert Calkins, our first president, we held some never-to-be-forgotten parties.

Such "old timers" as "Snooks" Sawyer, E. P. G., P. Bruck, and others were then in their waning days, but full of inspiration for us. It was then that we lost our first principal, Mr. Kling.

Our next year was one of joyous work, and parties, through the leadership of Harry Parks, our second president, and Miss Hunter, our sponsor. It was that year that a new and larger spirit crept in with the coming of Mr. Finch. But along with this we sustained the loss of the man who had watched our progress from the first, Mr. P. C. Emmons.

Our Junior year found us full of ambition and through the efforts of Mr. Finch and the willing spirit of Mr. Dixon, our new superintendent, we enjoyed a delightful year. Richard Misselhorn was chosen president and with the co-operation of the class and Miss Katterjohn, sponsor, we put across the Junior Play, "Fifty-Fifty," under the direction of Miss Duguid. Later we gave a very delightful Junior-Senior Banquet, of which you may read elsewhere in this book.

As to our success this year, you may judge from the events gleaned from this book. The Senior Class held their election early in the school year of 1922-23, and chose as their officers: Richard Misselhorn, President; Victor Lash, Vice-president; Marcella Meyer, Secretary and Treasurer; Miss Katterjohn, Sponsor.

Count Off!! Without a doubt no other organization has ever instilled so much pep in High School and put it on the map as the Drum Corps has this year.

Much credit is due Mr. Minch under whom the Drum Corps has flourished as it was through his efforts that so excellent a Drum Corps was able to be assembled.

School spirit was at its height when the twenty-two drummers marched down the South Side Gym with the Muncie Band at their side and 8,000 fans yelling.

Boost the Drum Corps, they've boosted us.

Second Semester

O. B. NELSON—Advisor

The Hi-Y has held its own this year in school activities. This really means more than it seems for with twelve other organizations and numerous school activities it is more difficult to make a club of its nature run smoothly.

One of the things that the club is doing yearly for the community is the bringing of such men as: Judge Ben Lindsay, Opie Reed and other entertainers that would not be heard in a city of Kendallville size, if it were not for the Lyceum.

Secretary	RUTH ALBRIGHT

Sponsors—MISSES SUMPTION, JENNINGS, KATTERJOHN, PADDOCK, AND GOODWIN.

The Girl Reserves have shown a fine spirit in their club this year, which has had its effects on the school in general and the entire city of Kendallville has been made to realize the greatness of this organization.

They sponsored again this year the annual Mother and Daughters Banquet and much credit is due them.

“K” CLUB

PresidentMAYNARD HOSLER
Vice-PresidentGEORGE PRENTICE
Sec. and Treas.HARRY YOUNG

Advisor—O. O. GUYMON

The “K” CLUB though few in number is doing its part in creating and keeping up a loyal school spirit. They have sponsored movements for football, track and other events and have played an important part in securing recruits for athletics. To the “K” CLUB belongs the honor of being the oldest club in High School.

Vice-President	DOROTHY NELSON
Sec. and Treas.	MARGARET CANODE

Sponsor—RUTH CRONK

The girls no doubt realizing a need for a club similar to the boys "K" CLUB organized an O. K. CLUB this year.

Credit is due to them for the decorating of the gym for the tournament this year, which added very much to the spirit of the tournament.

Although this club is still in its infancy, it hopes to accomplish greater things in the future years.

Sponsor—MISS OWEN

Finding a need for development along other lines than sports, the Parnof Players were organized under the direction of Miss Owen.

Short plays have been staged and perhaps this early training may reveal in future years a second Southern or Marlowe.

ORATORICAL CLUB

President	LAWRENCE VANVOORHIES
Vice-President	ROY WAGNER
Secretary	GRETA FULLERTON
Treasurer	RUTH ALBRIGHT

Among the new organizations ushered in this year was the Oratorical Club, under the supervision of Miss Paddock.

They have worked diligently and Roy Wagner, a member of the club, is out after honors in the State Discussion League.

JUNIOR HI-Y

President	CYRIL WAGGONER
Vice-President	WEIR LIBEY
Secretary	LINFORD FAILOR
Treasurer	WENDELL IHRIE
Reporter	EDWARD PRIDE
Advisor	MR. BOYD

The Junior Hi-Y has enjoyed a very successful year under the leadership of Art Merrill and Mr. Boyd.

They organized a very strong basketball team and some promising material should be available for High School next year.

AUDUBON CLUB

President CATHERINE NEWNAM
Vice-President JACK MACOMBER
Secretary and Treasurer BEATRICE SHIPPY
Advisor MISS KATTERJOHN

The Audubon Club is just in its infancy in High School but it will no doubt be a growing club in the coming years.

High School students on the whole are more or less interested in the great out-of-doors and should be able to relate some very interesting stories of wild life, if only given a chance. This chance is now afforded by the Audubon Club.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

PresidentMARGARET CANODE
Vice-PresidentLUELLA TREESH
Secretary and TreasurerRUBY SHOUP
AdvisorMISS HARDY

The Girls' Glee Club has accomplished some very good work this year under the direction of Miss Hardy.

The Girls staged a very enjoyable and unique party when clad as small girls. They passed an evening in mirth and gladness.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

President	WALTER BOLTON
Vice-President	DARIUS FRAZE
Secretary	HARRY YOUNG
Advisor	MISS HARDY

The Boys' Glee Club was not socially inclined as the Girls.'

However with the combined efforts of the two clubs they staged one of the most successful operettas in the history of the High School, "The Gypsy Rover."

ORCHESTRA

Director—MISS HARDY

Much credit is due Miss Hardy this year for the effort she put forth to raise the standard of music in the school.

We feel that the appearance of the High School Orchestra at various plays and programs is a tribute in itself to the faithful work of the orchestra.

RADIO CLUB

President	GERALD DUWAN
Vice-President	PAUL GRAHAM
Secretary and Treasurer	ELVIE SHAMBAUGH
Chief Operator	WENDELL IHRIE
Advisor	MR. HOWERTON

For the third year the Radio Club has carried out its part in High School organization.

Under the supervision of Mr. Howerton, they carried out some interesting experiments and have overhauled the entire set.

AN ENJOYABLE DAY FOR TWO

Mattie and Timothy, two country children, who knew very little about town life, were asked by their uncle if they cared to go to K'ville and attend the tourney. Of course, both were willing and they started making plans for a great day.

The day arrived and Uncle Joe came early after Mattie and Tim. Oh! What fun they did have riding to town in that big car known to all as a Ford. That made no difference to Mattie and Tim what the name of the car was because they enjoyed every minute of it. They arrived at the Community Building all O. K. and were directed into a large room which some of those boys and girls who stood around there, called the gym. Mattie and Tim took their seats.

All went fine for a while and Mattie and Tim just sat there with mouth and eyes wide open. Finally Mattie said,

"Say Tim, did you hear what that girl over there said," pointing to a girl who she found out later to be Ruby Shoup.

"No," replied Tim, "what did she say?"

"Why," she said, "the referee was so crooked that when he died, they'd have to screw him in his grave." Now what do you suppose she meant by that?

"I dunno," answered Tim bluntly.

Everything was quiet for a while and someone of the rooters hollered out,

"Eat 'em up."

"Oh dear," said Mattie, "hain't that awful, I wonder what they say that for?"

Tim was too much interested watching a couple of girls and how they acted, to pay much attention to Mattie. Keeping quiet as long as possible he said:

"Mattie, look at them girls hug each other every time that ball goes through that fish net."

"Tim, that's not a fish net, that's a basketball net."

"Wall, I jest watched them and as sure as the ball goes through that net, they grab and hug each other jest as if they were at a prize fight trying to knock each other out."

"Oh! Mattie," roared out Tim, "look, look, look at that feller up there in front of all of 'em, waving his hands and jumpin' 'round like a jelly fish. What's he doin'?"

"My dear, I can't tell you."

In the meantime the rooters were giving a yell for K'ville.

Hit 'em high;

Hit 'em low;

Yea Kendallville, let's go.

"What are they goin' to hit?" asked Tim.

Another yell was given:

Go get a go-cart,

Go get a hack,

Go drive way, way, back!

"What are they going to do with a go-cart?" piped out Mattie. "Surely them fellers haint to tired they have to have a go-cart to haul them out of this room."

"Keep still," said Mattie.

Just as Mattie said this a group of girls walked by Tim and her. One of them said, "Beatrice, this sure is some tourney, don't you think?"

Beatrice said, "you bet; don't you wish Decatur played here, Marcella?"

Tim and Mattie wondered why they wanted Decatur here, but they failed to find out, as the girls walked by quickly.

Just at this minute a gun shot, everybody made a mad rush for the door, and the tourney was over for that afternoon.

Mattie and Tim sure had a good time at the tourney. Although Uncle Joe wanted them to stay for the evening games they were tired and wanted to travel home.

After arriving home Tim and Mattie had so much to tell their folks no one else was able to get a word in edge-ways. This sure was an enjoyable day for two.

“ODE TO A FROSH”

I wonder what the Frosh would do
Without the Seniors light,
To guard him and protect him
And watch o'er him at night.

And lead him o'er the rocky way
Of tests and everything,
And chase him out of Chorus class
So that he cannot sing.

But lives of Freshies oft' remind us
We were that way in our time
And departing left behind us
Initials on the desks of time.

Initials that perhaps another
As he sees the desks again,
Thinks perhaps, he can do better
And digs with might and main.

When his task he then has finished,
He steps back for a better view
Then he sees that he has almost
Cut the poor old desk in two.

On the next day, Mr. Brumbaugh
Says, “Such work will have to stop,
For you know we cannot study
O'er a desk that has no top.”

“I'll do better next time teacher”
That is what they always say,
And they start in getting better
Every day in every way.

REMINISCENCE OF BEN FRITCH

"Well, it war this-away," said Ben Fritch as he scured a fresh chew of tobacco and seated himself more comfortably on his packing box in front of Ed Perkin's grocery store. "Pap" Fritch, (as the people of the town called him) had told this same tale, which I am relating to you just as I heard it, twice in the last month; but as he was forgetful and the incidents varied at each telling no remonstrance was made.

"It war jist this-away," Pap resumed. Me and old Slim Flukins had been campin' an fishin' fer nigh on to six weeks up in Maine when onc mornin' Slim says, 'I had a queer dream last night, Ben.'

"Ye did," says I, "what war it?"

"Well," says he, 'You see I war out fishin' and all to once I felt something heavy on my line, so it pulls up hard on her and perty soon over the edge of the boat comes a small travelin' bag. Well, he says, 'I tried to open her with my hands but the lock was all rusted—secin' as how she had been in the water fer a long time an so I took a stone that happened to be lyin' around the boat and hit the lock a blow that busted the lock all to pieces. Well Sir,' says he, 'when that blame thing broke open about three million dollars in gold and jewels and what-not fell out.'

"Well!" says I, "an what of it?"

"Well!" says he, 'I woke up jist then.'

"Well sir, you know I thought I'd die a-laughin'. There wan't much more said about it that day only I kipt smilin' to myself once in a while.

"The next day Slim up and says he had dreamed that same dream again. Then perty soon he allows as how he thinks we might have a few fish for supper, an so he gets a pole and goes fishin.' Well, he stopped jist a leetle way from camp where I was perty sahtin there want nothin' but some small blue gills. Next time I looked at Slim he was fishin' jist as deep as the string would allow an war a sweepin' the pole back and forth as if he war a draggin' the bottom which war jist the thing he war a-doin'.' Well he fished there for about three hours and then pulled out for the outer side of the lake an about noon he came back to the camp with a nice string of fish.

"Well Sir, the next morning Slim didn't say much but I see right away he had somethin' on his mind. He put the strongest string he could find on his line and went out in the same place he had been the day before. He kept swingin' his pole for about two hours and then all to once I heerd him yell, 'I got it! I got it!' Well I rushed down to the beach jist in time to see him pull a large suit case into the boat. He began pullin' on the oars like his boat was sinkin.' In about ten seconds he war at the shore a draggin' the suit case out on land. All the time he war a doin' this he war sayin'.

"Told you so! I told you so! I dreamed about it again last night an I knew I'd find it. It ain't as heavy as I thought it would be, but it is heavy enough for me. You kin come and visit me in my new home in New York some time. 'Gosh,' but I air a lucky man.'

"Well Sir, he pulled the suit case out on land an with one good knock he broke the lock all to pieces. Well I took about one good look at the contents and then I began to laugh till I thought I would split wide open. Instid of lookin' on a king's ransom, as I had expected, I viewed the remains of two old cats an a couple of kittens with enough stones thrown in the suit case to hold it to the bottom of the lake."

THE WAYWARD SON

The children all had gone to bed,
Methalda, Martha, Nick, and Ned.
Old Santa Claus that night would come
And all were good, yes, all but one.

The one exception was young Nick,
Who, at his best was quite a brick,
And he decided might and main
To watch old Santa play his game.

He softly left his trundle bed;
He used his toes, also his head.
To land himself where he could see,
What Old Saint Nick put on the tree.

The hours were long he had to keep;
Alas! Poor Nick fell fast asleep,
So finally when old Nick came in,
Young Nick was snoring—please don't grin.

Old Santa stood with pack in hand,
And watched young Nick in slumberland.
"He is my name sake, Nick," thought he,
"I'll put him on the Christmas tree!"

He found a stocking big as pa's—
And long—(It must have been Nick's ma's)—
And lifting Nick he slipped him in,
And hung the stocking on a limb.

Then morning came, and all with glee,
Came down to see the Christmas tree;
Did I say ail? Yes, all but one,
And that was Nick, the Wayward Son.

WHEN MY DREAMS COME TRUE

In the eventide when the day is done,
I love to sit and dream,
And my mind flows on down the stream of thought
To future things unseen.
And I dwell in a wonderful dreamland,
A land of rosy hue
Where the strength of youth can conquer all
There's nothing I can't do.
But I cannot live in my world of thought,
With the busy world around me,
So I steal away to some peaceful work,
Where quiet and calm surround me.
And there as I sit alone with my thoughts
When the cares of the days are through
I sit and dream in the eventide,
Of the time when my dreams will come true.

ATHLETICS

*To the Athletes and Coaches of the Kendallville High School who have established an envi-
able record in athletics*

THE SPIRIT OF '23

"Hit 'em high
Hit 'em low
Yea, Kendallville
Let's go!"

The student body rose to a man! Cheer after cheer rang out and yell followed yell. "And this was early in the game," I said to myself: for the October sun was shining in the windows of the Assembly Hall.

Just then I was surprised to find a miniature fellow dressed in a crimson sweater with gold trimmings, standing before me.

"You say it is early in the game?" he said with a merry twinkle in his eye. "Well just watch me before the year is over!"

"Unmistakably the Spirit of '23," I mentally commented and he nodded understandingly.

Except for the crimson and gold sweater and the half serious, half mischievous eyes, I should not have known my new friend the next time I saw him. He had grown remarkably! It was at a football game; the rooters were crowding out on the side lines, singing, waving penants, yelling, urging the boys on. Prentice plowed thru the line a good ten yards; Young made a forward pass; then suddenly Calkins broke thru the lines, slipped thru the tackler's fingers and charging across the field made a touch down. How the crowd cheered! I turned from the game to the side lines. There in the midst of the rooters was my friend, the Spirit of '23, but I could hardly believe my eyes! He had grown until he was a head and shoulders taller than the students.

Later at the basketball games he was more conspicuous than ever. We would see him on the side lines; at the same time he would be with the team, steadying their nerve; giving them courage and pep. He helped Boldy tip those balls into the baskets so easily; he gave Henry, the fleet foot; Calky, keen eye; Young, the sure catch; and Hork, the quick jump. Our Spirit of '23 was with the girls' team, also. Who else could have put such speed into the guards and such accuracy into the forwards.

When the time came for the Sectional Tourney, our Spirit of '23 had completely outgrown the H. S. gym, so that we had to take quarters at the "C." Here it was the same loyal helper, playing square with any team whether it was strong or weak. Ever he demonstrated to Kendallville what clean sportsmanship is.

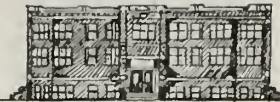

This Spirit of '23, grown from babyhood, I might say to gigantic size, was of course, at the South Side gym in Fort Wayne.

"Here is your testing time," I said to myself. But '23 stood the test! He seemed every where; on the side lines, with the drum corps, and always out on the floor with the eight! Even at the crisis, there he was putting his great loving arms about the boys, proud of them, loyal to them!

The Spirit of '23 is ever with us, in the class room, in work, in play, ever stronger and more loyal. "I shall never die," he said to me firmly and a little sadly as K. H. S. was closed to him forever.

—MISS PADDACK

COACH GUYMON

"Coach Guymon is the man K. H. S. has needed for a long time." These are the words of the students and fans, who are interested in the athletic life of Kendallville High School. When it comes to coaching athletics no better man can be found. He deserves much credit in the making of a football team this year, and in basketball, everyone knows he put Kendallville on the map. He is a great worker among boys, a true believer in clean sportsmanship and has a one-hundred percent spirit for Kendallville.

BASKETBALL 1922-23

Under coach Guymon, the 1922-23 season of basketball was probably the greatest that K. H. S. has ever witnessed. Out of the twenty-five games played only five were lost, three of them being only by one point and the other two by a small margin of three points. Decatur, South Side of Ft. Wayne, Angola, Central Catholic of Fort Wayne and Muncie were the teams to score a victory, and such teams as Liberty Center, Central of Fort Wayne, Decatur, Bluffton, Garrett, Wolf Lake, Angola, and Goshen were with a few others, that were forced to lose. Probably the greatest reason for such success, both in games played and financially, is due our coach, Mr. Guymon, our principal, Mr. Brumbaugh, and our superintendent, Mr. Dixon, because of their keen interest in clean athletics. We can well say that K. H. S. made her name prominent in the basketball world this season because of the overtime game played with Muncie at the regional tournament in Fort Wayne. This was a great chance for K. H. S. and every man on the team knew it and fought hard, however they were put out in an overtime period by the team that played in the finals at the state meet. At the regional meet K. H. S. was honored by having two of their players, Calkins and Prentice, picked for the all-regional team. Prentice has been elected captain for the 1923-24 season with three of the regulars back next year, a greater name should be made for K. H. S.

KAY AITCH ESS

CAPTAIN ROBT. CALKINS, Center.

Here's to Bob, our center and captain. He has played on the varsity for four years—a record very few have ever made. "Calky's" place will be hard to fill because when it came to plays and floor work, he had them down "pat" He was one of our players who made the all-regional team. Good luck, Bob, we're all for you, so show the Cream and Crimson what you can do.

(Captain-elect) GEORGE PRENTICE, Floor Guard.

This makes "Hork's" second year on the team and he still has another, and perhaps a greater one coming. As a floor guard he is nearly impassable and shoots long shots with accuracy. He was another to receive a berth on the all-regional team and has been elected captain for the 1923-24 season.

HARRY YOUNG, Back Guard

"Buster Keaton" may be a little short but he has a physique that enables him to play his position the way it should be played. It is great to see Harry leap in the air and grab the ball off from the backstop. This is only Buster's second year and he is one of the three that returns again next year. We have confidence in him.

WALTER BOLTON, Forward.

"Boldy" has an eye for the basket that can't be beaten. He has played for two years and knows the game thoroughly. He was the big point getter of the team and will be greatly missed next year as he is a Senior.

KAY AITCH ESS

JOHN HENRY, Forward.

Johnny was sick at the regional or you would have heard more of Johnny and K-ville too. When it comes to side shots and shots under the basket, "String" is right there and when it comes to a percentage made on the number of shots, he again shines. Teams! beware of him next year.

EDGAR THOMAS, Forward-Guard.

Ed. was a sub this year but proved his worth in the tournaments. He is a good shot and a heady player and should make a name for himself next year.

PAUL KNIGHT, Center.

This was Knight's first year on the team and he also made a good showing. Against the Central Catholics he played a great game and deserves much credit for taking the "race-horse" position.

KENNETH RYMAL, Guard.

Rymal is a big boy—carries around 185 pounds and no fat. The only thing that kept him from being a regular was the lack of experience because he was a fast man when it came to floor work.

FOOTBALL

CAPTAIN HOWARD TREESH

"Drag" K. Treesh is no small man. His size with his experienced football head enabled him to lead the team in such a way that Kendallville was once again represented by a strong high school football team. When ever "Drag" went out of the game the team was like a ship without a rudder. "Treeshy" is also a great man for line plunges. One opposing player was heard to say, "Good night, eight of us got him and then he made seven yards." Treesh should be with us next year.

(Football Note)

Football was stopped in K. H. S. in 1917, because of lack of material and a coach. This year a group of fellows with football spirit in their veins, and a coach that knew the game, started to mould K-ville a team. Much credit is due Coach Guymon for the efforts he extended in developing a winning team and if Kendallville is his home again next year another such successful season will be made.

K. H. S.—COLUMBIA CITY.

The game at Columbia City was the first of the season, and in fact the first football game that a K. H. S. team had played since 1917. Prentice received the ball off the kick-off and ran for a touchdown, making the first score of the season and giving K-ville the lead. On offense, K. H. S. showed speed and power and made big gains throughout the game. The line proved to be weak on defense in this game but their excuses were good because the majority were playing their first game. Although the game was a victory every man on the squad saw his mistakes and decided to correct them. Prentice starred in long runs for touchdowns. The score was 44-9 in our favor.

K. H. S.—SOUTH SIDE (Ft. Wayne)

South Side came to Kendallville thinking of "easy picking" but returned saying, "K-ville sure has a hard hitting team." A hard battle was waged the first half, neither side being able to score. In the third quarter Ft. Wayne started the passing game, one pass being carried over the line by Wilkens, for a touchdown. In the second half K. H. S. did not play their line plunging game but used the forward pass and only a few gains were made. South Side made a place kick in the fourth quarter making their total 10. Our team was unable to score.

K. H. S.—AUBURN

Auburn proved to be oysters and were downed raw. K-ville played a line plunging game altho passes could have been carried out. Auburn could not gain an inch through our line so they started the "gain ground hurriedly" method and were again held—although they did manage to slip one over on us and get a touchdown. At the end of the game the score showed K. H. S. with a score of 45 and Auburn with 6. Question: What is a cross-buck?

K. H. S.—HOWE (Military)

This game was started with a rush for touchdowns. Howe scored first by a trick play, which perhaps, was used too early in the game. K. H. S. received and plunged the ball over their opponents line tying the score. Howe came back with another touchdown and was again followed by K-ville who made their kick goal and led by one point. Before the end of the first half K. H. S. made another touchdown and the score stood 20-12 in our favor. In the second half it was the same old story, Howe was unable to hold the K. H. S. heavy backfield so two more touchdowns were made. Capt. Treesh showed his ability to plunge and kick by making three touchdowns and kicking 100 percent. Although Howe went back defeated she was greatly satisfied with the treatment. Score: 34-12.

K. H. S. 6—GARRET 6

This was the big game of the season, with Garrett, our old rivals. Many fans were attending the Notre Dame-Indiana game, but a large crowd gathered, Garrett bringing along over a hundred rooters. The first half was a man to man fight, neither side being able to make long gains because of the exceptionally fine tackles. In the third quarter the same fighting spirit showed but Garrett insisted upon working the ball up the field far enough to score by a place kick. Again in the last quarter Garrett worked the ball up to the thirty yard line and Longbrakes expert toe sent the ball through the goal posts making their total 6. Then with only two minutes to go K. H. S. received and the ball fell to Calkins, who with great interference made by the whole team and especially that of Treesh, carried the ball eighty-five yards for a touchdown, tying the score. A drop-kick was tried but the ball hit one of the goal posts and bounced off, thus the game was tied but not won. The K. H. S. line made a name for themselves in this game because of their great defense. Once Garrett had the ball on K-ville's 8 yard line and had four downs to put it over and on the fourth down they were back to the thirty yard line. Every fellow on the team deserves credit for this game because every man got his man and played a fighting game.

TRACK 1922

The track season in K. H. S. opened with about fifteen men out for berths on the team and most of these having had no training in track before. Under Coach Shirly a team was developed that K. H. S. was proud to have, although the lack of training in previous years showed. In meets, K-ville not only sent Treesh and Deihm to the state but also defeated Auburn who was represented by one of the strongest teams in northern Indiana. The men on the team were, Capt. Prentice, Treesh, Deihm, Rymal, Berhalter, Hanes and Calkins.

TRACK OR BASEBALL?

"Track or Baseball?" This was the argument just as soon as the basketball season ended. It was found that the majority of fellows were in favor of track so Coach Guymon set out at once to make ready by making hurdles and arranging meets. The meets that have been scheduled are with La Grange, Fort Wayne Central high school and Columbia City. The team is also expecting to enter the district at Ft. Wayne, May 12, and hopes are that some may be able to enter the state meet on May 18. With Rymal, Prentice, Berhalter, Hanes, Bolton and Calkins back from last years team, and plenty of new material ready for development Mr. Guymon has high hopes for a first class team.

HURRAH FOR YOUNG

"Ebb" Young will be captain of the football team next year. We all know Ebb as a heady and scrappy player, as well as being a good leader. Tear 'em up, Ebb, we're for you.

SHAFFER KIDS THE COACH

Shaffer was told by the coach, between halves of the Howe game, that they were going through him. "Jake" couldn't see how they were going through him but confessed that they were getting around him.

GIRLS

All the basketball fellows know that Boldy and Young have steady girls. Waiting for them to come to practice is no joke. Come on girls, have a heart.

THERE'S A REASON

Probably the greatest reason for the success the team made at the regional meet at Ft. Wayne is due Coach Guymon. Girls, the boys stayed at the Anthony.

GIRLS' VARSITY SQUAD

Fifteen R-A-H's for the Varsity Squad; which helped to make the girls' team the best that K. H. S. ever had. They have been very faithful and have worked hard to make girls' basketball a success and a credit to high school. We feel that an over amount of praise is due them.

KAY AITCH ESS

MISS CRONK

Miss Cronk returned to us this year with more vim than ever. She has proved herself to be one of the ablest coaches we have had and it was through her coaching and interest in this High School that put the girls' team on such a high standard. We hope we may keep Miss Cronk next year.

MARGARET CANODE

This is "Captain Peggy"—as a forward she is a whiz. She has led us through a very successful year. She is a Senior this year and her clever jumping will be missed on the team next year.

DOROTHY HART

Dorothy is our other forward but then what's the use of telling it, everyone knows it. Dorothy was one of the most faithful the team has ever had; always working and the score sure climbed when she got started. Go for them next year, we'll back you, Dorothy.

RUBY SHOUP

Let's give Ruby a cheer! She sure is a snappy guard and deserves the gold star. She has been faithful at practice and has fought hard in all the games. Her favorite battle cry is, "I'll get her."

KAY AITCH ESS

MILDRED HENRY

"Midge" has been a guard on the team for three years and too much credit cannot be given her. Everybody knows her as the "fighting guard"—although she never loses her head and gets angry. Mildred graduates this year and her place will be hard to fill because she was always dependable.

GRETA FULLERTON

Here's Greta, the girl who is known for her "high jumping." Leave it to Greta, she sure knows the game. She is a very efficient jumping center and the team will miss her next year. Greta has had her share of bumps, but has had the pluck to stay with us.

DOROTHY NELSON

"Dot" played a wonderful game this year. Her opponents were unable to tire her and would finally give up trying. Her middle name ought to be Quick, as she was always first to the ball. Much to our sorrow we will lose Dorothy as she is a Senior this year and the position of running center will have to be filled by a new recruit.

MARCELLA MEYER

What can we say that will be good enough for Marcella? She has been on the job all of the time, working with a vim that never weakened. She played in many games this season and certainly made it count. Marcella is a Senior and the team will lose a valuable player.

KAY AITCH ESS

DONA BRENNER

Dona was one of the most faithful players on the team, coming to every practice and working faithfully all along. Her clever playing featured in many games. Dona is a Sophomore, so she goes for two more years.

BEATRICE NEWNAM

"Be" was our sub-center and she sure knew how. She played a wonderful game; always ready when the ball came her way. Although she did not get to play in many games we know she helped us in practice. Beatrice is another who has honored the Senior class in athletics.

OMA DAMOND

Oma proved herself to be a whiz and was never found sleeping at her post. Oma didn't feature in many games this year but when she did, she made it count. She is a Sophomore so the team will have her two more years.

K. H. S. vs. LIGONIER

On November 17, the girl's team journeyed to Ligonier to open the season with a bang. This was a fast game, but Ligonier was unable to hold her own. Everyone played a good game with Dorothy Hart as the star of the game. Through much fighting the game came to a close with score at the end standing 16-4 in our favor.

K. H. S. vs. AUBURN

On November 24, the Auburn girls came here to try their hand at defeating us. They had good support from the side lines and amid much cheering the game began. Everybody was playing their best. Auburn sure had the game down "pat," but nevertheless our girls did too. They were determined to win but they hadn't reckoned with our team and the final score stood 7-15.

K. H. S. vs. LAGRANGE

On December 22, we met the La Grange girls on their floor. Neither team had been beaten so far, and so we knew it meant work. The whistle blew and the game started. Even though they were losers they treated us well, and we came home with a final score of 17-5 in our favor which added a well deserved victory.

K. H. S. vs. FORT WAYNE

January 12, we journeyed to Ft. Wayne to play the girls there. Everyone was excited over the large floor, but, nevertheless we were determined to win. After the game started it wasn't long until we became familiar with the floor. Peggy was the star of the game playing her position as forward to perfection. Finally the game came to a close with a final score of 37-6 in our favor. Were we happy?

K. H. S. vs. LAGRANGE

The LaGrange team came here January 19 to try to beat the Crimson and Gold tossers. It looked to the crowd as though they would leave us in the dust for a while, but it didn't look this way to our girls. Determined not to break our winning record they got busy. It was a fight from the beginning to the end, but our girls soon got busy, and at the end of the game the score stood 19-30 in our favor. Ruby certainly deserves much credit for this game, as guard, for she played her position to perfection.

K. H. S. vs. AUBURN

On January 26, with our lineup broken by the absence of three regulars we journeyed to Auburn to meet the Auburn girls on their own floor. It was a good game, but our girls were unable to hold their own. Everybody played hard but when the gun shot Auburn was the winner by a score of 13-6.

LIGONIER vs. K. H. S.

On Feb. 9, the Ligonier girls came here to try their luck on our floor. It was the roughest game ever played on our floor. But after many knocks and bumps the gun shot with a final score of 26-5 in our favor.

ANGOLA vs. K. H. S.

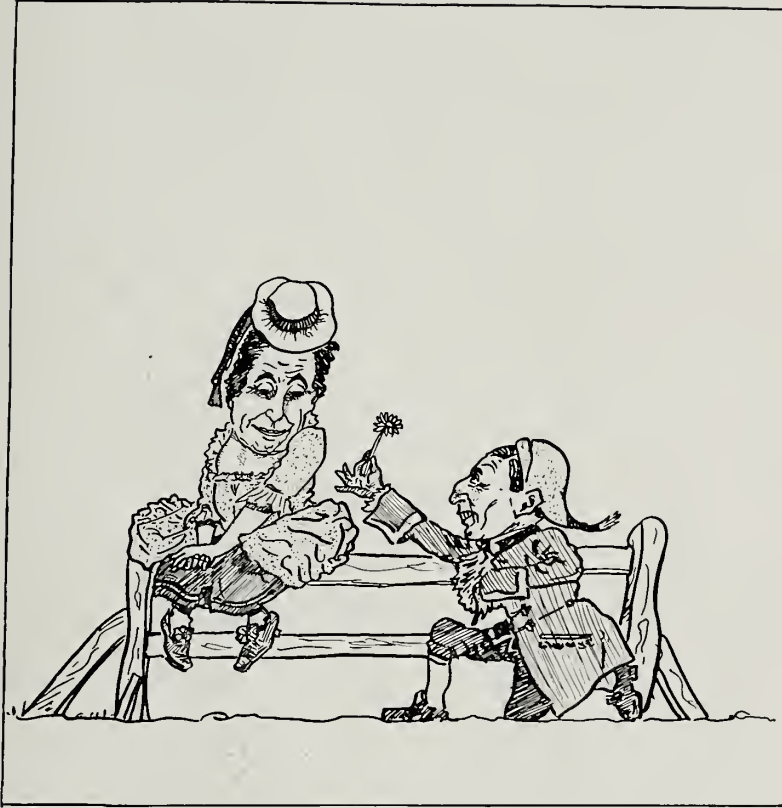

On Feb. 16, we met the Angola girls on their floor. In the first half we were unable to do a thing, and the half ended 6-6; but in the second half we got busy. The score was tied three times during the game. Finally, the gun shot and we were in the lead one point, making the final score 8-9.

GARRETT vs. K. H. S.

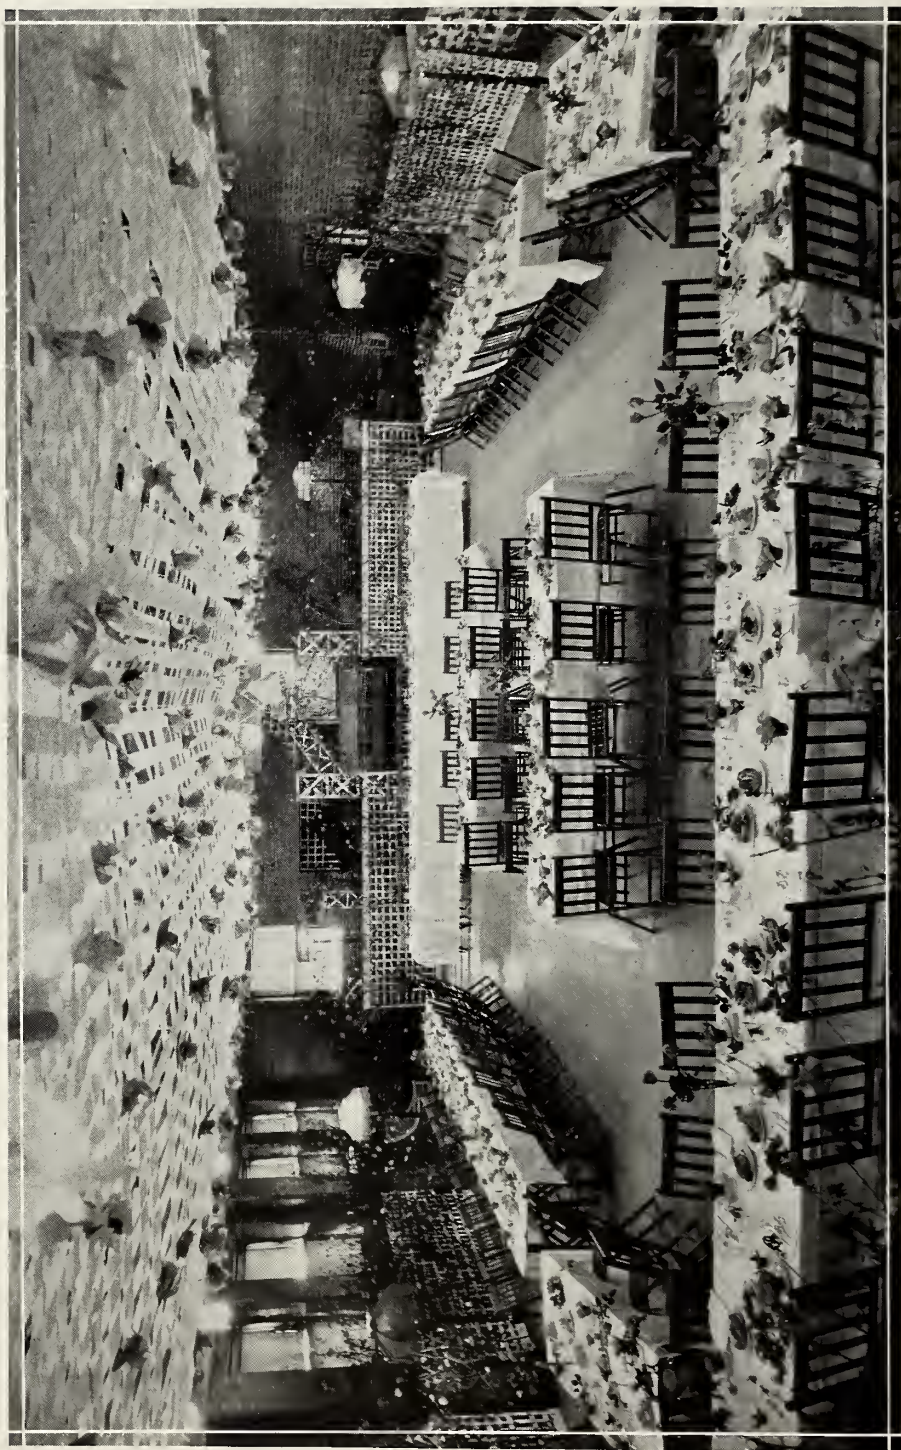

On Feb. 24, the girls' team journeyed to Garrett to meet their girls' team. Our girls were unable to get the lead, but nevertheless they fought hard. Finally the game ended with the score 16-11. Did we win?

SOCIETY

1922 BANQUET.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The annual Junior-Senior Banquet was held in the High School Gym, April 28, 1922. In honor of the Senior class, the entire gymnasium was converted into a rose garden.

Trellises of climbing roses covered the walls. The tables were a profusion of American Beauty roses. In every way the class flower, the rose, was carried out in the decorations and serving the sumptuous banquet.

After the toasts were given, the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, the music being furnished by Mac's Melody Men.

The Juniors in charge of the decorations were: Edwin Chappell, Harry Park and Birdena Addicks. Marcella Meyer acted as chairman of the banquet committee and Greta Fullerton as chairman of the program committee.

To Miss Katterjohn, we owe a vote of thanks for her sponsorship during our Junior and Senior years, as it was through her efforts that such a successful banquet was arranged and much honor is due her for her interest.

OUR HIGH SCHOOL PARTY

On October 31 the entire High School held a masquerade party in the High School Gym. It was a royal affair from start to finish.

There were costumes of every description each student deserving special mention, however Marcella Meyer and Beatrice Newnam won the first prize for the most unique costumes. The first part of the evening was spent in games and contests, stunts etc., after which refreshments were served. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. We decided that the teachers are only teachers in the school room and can well be called, "One of Us." Here's hoping for more such good times.

SOPHOMORE PARTY

The Sophomores gave a party in the gymnasium on December 21, 1922.

What is Christmas without mistletoe? Yea—what is Christmas with mistletoe? In vain had we tried to obtain some, but hurrah! for Mr. Johnson! who, at exactly thirty minutes before Santa arrived, dashed into our midst with an armload of mistletoe that had come clear from Chicago—just for us. Then merrier than before, (if possible) the party continued— all trying to avoid the mistletoe. Everbody was happy.

Dainty refreshments were served in the shadows of the electric-lighted Christmas tree, that shed rainbow gleams throughout our spacious Gym.

The pianist was just playing "Three O'clock In The Morning," when in pranced our modern Santa Claus in Russian boots, but with the old-time hump on his back,—well filled, too, something for each of us, useful or otherwise.

Everybody went home wishing the evening could be longer, for all had had one of the happiest evenings in Sophomore history.

THE GLEE CLUB PARTY

A group of merry little ones entered the doors of the High School on Friday evening the 15 of December for a very exclusive Christmas party. They called themselves the Girls' Glee Club of the K. H. S. but I would not state that as an absolute fact because although their actions were similar to those with which we were acquainted their clothing was a little different.

They tell us they took a few flashlight pictures perhaps if you look can see one or two in this Kay Aitch Ess. About ten o'clock they took their dolls and teddy bears and went to the home of one of the members of the party, little Miss Greta Fullerton where they had refreshments. At about eleven o'clock they turned their faces toward their homes.

"The end of a perfect party," said the GIRLS.

THE SENIOR PARTY

On Monday, February 5th the Seniors betook themselves to the home of one of its number, Marcella Meyer for the first party of the year.

The affair started off with a bang. You'll remember the accident between the two Fords in which tall Kenneth and Bobby are the main characters. Never-the-less they were at the party as were about forty other Seniors. The evening was spent in contestant games and cards and delightful refreshments were served. After the refreshments there was dancing. Just before going we sang the good old K. H. S. song, which sent us home as high spirited as we were when we came, a characteristic of Seniors.

We regret that Marcella didn't hide her accordion before Peggy began practicing on it, perhaps we could have stayed longer.

THE FRESHMAN PARTY

It was held in the Gym February 16, 1923. About fifty little ones gathered together for their first party of the year.

"We were discouraged and down-hearted because the upper-classmen were planning such good times but when we heard that we could have a party, how happy we were."

The features of the evening were games and dancing and refreshments were served. Miss Valenti our sponsor together with a few other teachers were also present to oversee the proceedings. All present reported a fine time and the party broke up about ten o'clock and we departed for our homes, some having real dates and others were a little timid. Just wait until we are Sophomores.

THE JUNIOR AND SENIOR PARTY

On Saturday evening Feb. 14, 1923 the Juniors and Seniors together held a party in the High School Gymnasium.

Some of the girls were unable to be there until late due to the Basketball game at Garrett.

Dancing was the main feature of the evening. Bickle's Orchestra furnished the music and, Oh! those eats, ice-cream suckers and hot hamburgers—human mind could have thought of no better. Tired out but supremely happy we found our way home.

ANOTHER SOPHOMORE PARTY

About fifty Sophomores held their last party of the year in the nature of a Saint Patricks Day party. Green bows were given as favors.

John Wackerman entertained with his dextrous slight-of-hand tricks. A mock court was held and Mr. Boyd and Mr. Howerton proved to be able lawyers for the fair ones. While refreshments were being served some kind and condescending Seniors and Juniors favored us with their presence. After refreshments everyone danced.

Tommy: (Speaking of May's beau coming down the street). "Here comes April showers.

May: "Why do you call him April Showers, Tommy?"

Tommy: "Because he brings May flowers."

Employer: "I think that Mr. Smith would leave his head if it wasn't stuck on, why!—this morning he left his cane here."

Owner: "Oh! That's nothing, I heard that he is to go to Colorado for his lungs."

"When does the 5:30 train leave?" shouted a passenger, bursting in at the station door.
Five-thirty," replied the porter.

"Well, the post office clock is 28 minutes past 5 and the town hall clock is 32 minutes past, which am I to believe?"

"Why, you can go by any you want but you can't go by the train because it's gone."

Summer Boarder: "Do you pasteurize milk?"

Farmer: "No, mam, we pasteurize the cow."

Boy: "I know where you can get a chicken dinner for fifteen cents."

Father: "Where?"

Boy: "At the feed store."

Guymon: "Everything I tell that boy goes in one ear and out the other."

Howerton: "You're wrong, sound can't pass a vacuum."

"Shay, officer, whersh the corner?"

"You're standing on it."

"S' no wonder I couldn't see it."

Dale: "What's the matter, Luella, can't you skate?"

Luella: (Trying for the first time). "I don't know yet, I can't stand up long enough to find out."

Teacher: "Where do fleas come from, Willie?"

Willie: (Scratching head). "Search me."

Teacher: "Take this sentence. 'Let the cow be taken out of the lot.' What mood?"

Merle Kellner: "The cow."

Father: "Now, Bob, I want you to be good while I'm away."

Bob Grubb: "I'll be good for a nickel."

Father: "I want you to know that while you're my son you must be good for nothing."

Horse Salesman: "Why, look he's a dandy horse, look at his fine coat."

Farmer: "He's got a fine coat, all right, but, I don't like those short pants."

Robin: (Looking at garden hose). "Gee Whiz! I'd like to see the bird that pulled out that worm."

Brumbaugh: "Why were you late this morning, Mildred?"

M. Grubb: "School started before I got here."

Walker: "Have an accident?"

Rider: "No, thanks, I just had one."

DARIUS FRAZE'S POEM FOR ENG. III.

Ruth rode on my new bicycle car,

On the seat in back of me.

I hit a bump at 55 and

Drove on "Ruth-lessly."

Miss Owen: (In loud voice). "Now I want this stopping talked."

Roy: (In staff meeting). "Looks as if there were a good many absent faces present."

Mr. Howerton: (In Physics class). "What does sea water contain besides the sodium chloride we have mentioned?"

P. Pepple: "Fish."

H. Merrill: "But you will admit that I have a pretty face?"

M. Pray: "Even a barn looks good when it's painted."

"I did not say all lawyers were crooks," said the doctor. "But you will have to admit that your profession does not make angels of men."

"No," replied the lawyer, "you doctors certainly have the advantage over us there."

ADVERTISEMENTS

For Sale—A room to a gentleman looking both ways with good ventilation.

Annual Sale Now On—Don't go elsewhere to be cheated, come in here!

Wanted—A room for two gentlemen thirty feet long and twenty feet wide.

Wanted—A girl I have never gone with to take to the banquet.—D. Berhalter.

Prof.: "What did you come to college for anyway, surely it wasn't to study."

Stude.: "Mother says it's to fit me for the Presidency, Sis says to get a chum for her to marry, Uncle George says it's to sow my wild oats, and Dad says it's to bankrupt the family."

For two weary hours the small baby had been howling, and the other occupants of the crowded Pullman coach were getting tired of it. "O, dear!" sighed the young mother, "I really don't know what to do with the child." The eyes of the crusty old bachelor nearly lit up with hope as, speaking courteously for the first time in his life, he asked:

"May I open the window for you, madam?"

Miss Goodwin (In Hist.): "Do you know why I flunked you?"

D. Hosler: "I have no idea."

Miss Goodwin: "That's why, my lad."

Ruby: "I don't like these photos at all, I look like an ape!"

Photographer (with lofty disdain): "You should have thought of that before you had them taken."

Little Girl (At show): "Mama, when are the Indians coming in?"

Mother: "Hush, there are no Indians."

L. G.: "Then who scalped all the men in the front row?"

"Lemme feel your pulse."

"I don't have any, the doctor took it yesterday."

"Aren't you Owen Jones?"

"Hell, yes, I'm owing everybody here."

Mr. Howerton: "Now watch the board while I run through it again."

(A messenger boy with a telegram at two in the morning): "Does Mr. Smith live here?"

Mrs. Smith: "Yes bring him in."

(To mother's listening ear): "Oh Roy, I never before realized the power of the press."

(The interest in journalism sent her reassured to bed): "Lucky for you, huh Greta?"

Dorothy N. (after riding two hours): "Don't you ever stop to look at your engine?"
Maynard P.: "Never. You'd be surprised what a good engine this Overland has."

He: "Going to have dinner anywhere tonight?"

She: (eagerly) Why no, not that I know of.

He: Gee, you'll be hungry before morning.

"Look out, look out, you'll catch fire."

"What's the matter?"

"Don't go breathin' over here when I get this match lit."

Midge: "Why he only lifted me over the creek for fun!"

Vick: "Well, that's carrying a joke too far."

Peggy: "What did Paul do when Ruby wouldn't kiss him out on the lake last night?"

Dorothy: "He paddled her back."

Peggy: "The rough thing!"

Thelma M.: "Do you always take the other girls for such long walks?"

Jimmy M.: "No, it isn't always necessary."

Which professor was it that before he went to class yesterday morning, threw his wife out the back door and kissed the garbage?

Jennet: "What do you do when you don't wear an overcoat?"

Marlin: "Pad my other hip."

Miss Jennings: "Neale, I hear your little sister has the measles. When are you going to get them?"

Neale: "When she gets through with them, I suppose."

Tall Handsome Bandit (holding up train): "Now, I'll take the money and kiss the women."

Shorty: "Never mind about kissing the women folk get the dough."

Old Maid in rear: "You mind your own business, the tall man's robbing this train."

"Marie certainly has a large vocabulary."

"Yes, I've told her she should take more exercise."

Mr. Guymon: "There's a lad with good stuff in him."

Mr. Howerton: "Let's follow him; maybe we can find out where he got it."

She smiled,

And I smiled back.

I met another—

She smiled;

I smiled too.

They all smiled—

I thought it queer,

I began to fear

And then I found

My sock was down

Over my shoe—

And then I knew

Lady: "Which end will I get off at?"

Conductor: "It's all the same to me, both ends stop."

Son: "Don't you think that after a fellow has taken a girl to the show, then to a dance, and then to a lunch, he should kiss her good night?"

Father: "Huh! I should think he had done quite enough for her already."

"Why do you call your infant son Bill?"

"He came on the first of the month and is getting bigger all the time."

Is it proper for an undertaker to say, "The more the merrier?"

"Why does a chicken lay an egg?"
"Because if she dropped it, it might break."

"You passed me today and never recognized me."
"What? Were you the girl with the open work color stockings?"

"It's the little things in life that tell," said the girl as she dragged her kid brother from under the sofa.

Man in Tide: "Help! Help! I'm drowning!"
Man dozing on sand: "Well why so much noise about it?"

Policeman: "But didn't you feel the pick-pocket's hand in your pocket?"
Absent Minded boy: "Yes but I thought it was my own."

Mother: "Always love your teacher."
Fuzz: "I tried that once but she got mad."

Boy behind fat man in show: "Can't you see young fellow?"
Boy: "Not a thing."
Fat Man: "Then keep your eyes on me and laugh when I do."

(Young woman in music store) "Have you kissed me in the Moonlight?"
Clerk: "Nope, I'm a new man here, maybe it was the other fellow."

Toby: "Yeah, she won the loving cup at the tourney."
Calky: "Well, I always thought she was good at it."

Let x equal my Dad's signature, y equals the amount of the check, z equals good looking girl.

Therefore we get the equation:
 x plus y plus z equals good time.
 x plus y minus z equals bum time.
 x minus (x plus y) equals out of luck.
Determine the value of x and z .

Stranger (to golfer): "Pardon me, but what is the idea of this game?"
Knickered Boy: "Very simple. Just take the stick and hit the ball into the hole over there with the flag. Try it?"
A mighty swing, a lucky drive of 320 yards and stops 3 inches from the hole.
Stranger: "Damn it! I missed it!"

Hork (in the parlor): "I think something has come between us."
Utoka (same place): "What else can you expect when you sit so far away?"

1st. Darkey: "Ah understan' yo' all has a new arrival at yo' house."
2nd. Darkey: "Yep, another dark spot has entered my life."

"Did you go to your girl's funeral?"
"Nope!"
"How come?"
"Well, in her last letter she said she was going to heaven and would never see me again."

Poor Pat spent almost his last dollar for passage to America. After a week in New York looking for work he was dead broke. As he sat on a bench in the Battery, he saw a diver being pulled up on dock.

"Arrah!" said Pat. "If I had known you could walk over I would have saved me passage money."

She: "Fred, dear, what is an enferiority complex?"

He: "It's a feeling you have when while dancing your garter comes down."

Irate father: "How is it, sir, that I find you kissing my daughter?"

Glen: "Wonderful, sir! Wonderful!"

Abie: "Ve had a test in Economics today, and—"

Benjamin: (wearily) "Talk on your hands, I want to sleep."

"What do you consider the best years of a woman's life?"

"Oh, perhaps the first five years she is nineteen."

"Mama, Daddy called the nurse an angel yesterday. Will she fly?"

"Very soon darling, very soon,"

Miss Paddack: "Your themes should be written so that most of the stupid people could understand them."

Dick Misselhorn: "Yes mam, but what part don't you understand?"

Room: "Hey there, don't spit on the floor."

Mate: "'S matter? Floor leak?"

She: (At dinner table): "How do you like my new dress?"

He: "I haven't had a chance to look under the table yet."

Now give us an example of how circumstances alter causes.

"Well, Milwaukee isn't famous any more."

"Daddy can you still do tricks?"

"What do you mean, my son?"

"Well, mama said that when you were young you used to drink like a fish."

She: "If you come over tonight we can't play the Victrola, you know it's Lent.

He: "Well, when will you get it back?"

She: "Can I sell you a ticket for two and a half?"

He: "How do you know my girl is stout?"

Ed Crutcher: "What would you say if I threw you a kiss?"

Lillian Smith: "Gee, you're lazy!"

"Are you in favor of clubs for women?"

"Brickbats are better."

Dorothy H.: "Dick that man at the seventh table from here hasn't taken his eyes off me since we come in."

Dick B.: "How do you know?"

Wilma: "I'm afraid Harrison is falling for that girl."

Thelma: "Don't worry, I have it from a good source that her father absolutely hasn't a drop in his cellar."

Jack: "I'm an electrician, Last night at Thelma's the fuse blew out. Guess who fixed it. Me!"

Bob: "Huh! You're not an electrician, you're an idiot!"

Skis: "Did you know that they had a machine now that can tell when you're lying?"

Skissix: "Huh! I married one of them!"

"Mother-in-law just drank five quarts of—"

"Don't take it so hard."

"But it was my liquor."

When a woman's lips are cracked
She uses grease 'tis said,
I wonder why one sees a man
Use vaseline upon his head?

W. Irhie: "Why all the puffing?"

K. Rymal: "I'm all tired out. There was a fight out there, and I tried to stop it."

Irhie: "Is that so? Who was fighting?"

Rymal: "Me and another guy."

Car Conductor: "You've been snoring horrible—if you'd only shut your mouth you wouldn't make so much noise."

Sleepy Passenger: "Neither would you."

Ruby: "Where are Ruth and Eb?"

Paul: "I saw them in the hall having a race."

Ruby: "Who won?"

Paul: "I don't know, they were neck and neck when I left."

Guymon: "A collector you say? Did you tell him I was out?"

Brumbaugh: "Yes, but he wouldn't believe me."

Guymon: "Well, I guess I'll have to go and tell him myself."

"You remember the story of the man who ordered thirty dollars worth of ham and eggs?"

"Yes, that used to be a joke."

"Well, it isn't now."

Jack: "Would you be willing to take me for better or worse?"

Helen: "I'd rather strike a happy medium."

"What did he promise his wife he would give up?"

"Drinking liquor in saloons."

"May I use your lawn mower for a short time Mr. Gloom?"

"Certainly, but do not take it out of my yard, please."

"Please give me twelve tooth brushes for my wife."

"Twelve?"

"Yes, one for each tooth."

Mother: "Good heavens, what's the matter with your ear?"

Thelma: "Nothing, silly, just a leaky fountain pen in Howard's pocket."

Marjorie E. Kenneth is awfully nice, but he's so bashful. Does he ever put his arm around you?

Mildred G.: "Well, he helps."

Where can a man buy a cap for his knee
Or a key for lock of his hair.
Can his eyes be called an Academy
Because there are pupils there?
In the crown of your head
What jewels are found?
Who travels the bridge of your nose?
If you wanted to shingle the bridge of your mouth
Would you use the nails on your toes?
Or beat the drum of you ear?
Can the calf of your leg eat the corn on your toe?
Then why not grow corn on the ear?
Can the crook in your elbow be sent to jail?
If so what did he do?
How can you sharpen your shoulder blade?
I'll be darned if I know do you?
Can you sit in the shade of the palm of your hand?
You can do more than I can if you do.

Suitor: "For the Love of Pete, look out for my hip pocket!"

Parent: "Say, why didn't you tell you was a regular fellow?"

Old Lady: "And what are you going to be when you grow up?"

Girl: "An old woman."

Wife: "You refuse to buy me my new coat, yet you used to say you would go through fire and water for me!"

He: "But my darling, I never said I'd go through the Bankruptcy Court!"

Peggy: "There are two men I really admire."

Boldy: "Who's the other?"

Marcella: "Greta's not satisfied with her pictures."

Beatrice: "They make her look younger than she really is."

Marcella: "I know, but she expects to have them look even younger than she says she is."

Jack: "I like to talk to Mary, she's such a good listener."

Jim: "Yea, she's been married for over a year."

News Sun Reporter: "We will take that, but quite a bit will have to be cut out before we can print it."

W. Bucks, School Reporter: "What part can you use?"

Reporter: "The heading."

1.: "They say Bump tells his wife everything."

2.: "Yes, but it isn't really his fault, he's got to tell somebody and there's no more bartenders."

Rich Bachelor: "My only ambition is to die poor."

Married Friend: "Have you picked out the girl yet?"

Why do dentists call their offices dental parlors?

I suppose they think it would make their patients feel bad if they called them drawing rooms.

Miss Jennings (English): "The man was in a reverie and the lady was in a tantrum. They collided."

E. Bloom: "The man was in what?"

Miss Jennings: A reverie. And the lady was in a tantrum.

Eric: "I suppose both machines were badly damaged?"

Friend of Mr. Knights: "Kin you remember that day you blew in a whole weeks wages to drive the little blond down main street? You were getting two-fifty a week then. That boy of yours Marline gets two-fifty an hour now and the blamed spend thrift boned you the other night for the price of the gasoline."

"Does your baby brother cry much Ethel?"

"He cries when you stick pins in him or bounce him up and down. But what can you expect. He's too little to swear."

"So your husband took you to the ball game?"

"Yes (sighing) I wish he'd talk to the cook like he talked to the umpire."

Delos Thrapp: "Why in the world don't you laugh when Guymon tells a joke."

Dick M.: "I don't have to. I'm leaving High School at the end of the week."

"Don't cry, little boy, you'll get your reward in the end."

Johnny—"On his throne."

Teacher—"Now, Johnny, construct a sentence using the word throne correctly."

Johnny: "Father gave me such a licking that I can't sit on my throne."

Mother: "Johnny, don't run around the house so fast, you'll fall and hurt yourself."

Johnny: "If I don't run fast it'll hurt anyway. Dad's after me."

"How did you come to tear your stocking?"

"I didn't come to tear my stocking. I came for a walk."

She told me did I drink
And when I said her no
All she said was laff?

"How did you get that cut on your head?"

"He—musta—Hve—bit—myself."

"Gwan. How could you bite yourself up there?"

"Musta stood on a chair."

Pap (To his bright infant): "What's wrong?"

Son (Twelve years old): "I had a terrible scene with your wife."

She: "You raised your hat to that girl who passed. You don't know her do you?"

"He: "No, but my brother does, and this is his hat."

First Convict: "When I get out of this pen I'm going to have a hot time, aren't you?"

Second Convict: "Don't know. I'm in for life."

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

HURRY! HURRY! HURRY!

The play begins with the announcement of Mr. Hooker's failure in business. The only thing that will save him is that his daughter fulfill the conditions of a will, whereby she will receive a million dollars. Floy Hooker, the daughter, is not to know the terms of the will, yet her parents are to see she becomes engaged before midnight of her own volition. Members of the family believe she must love one of the men at the house—one a football hero, Ted Stone, and a cowboy-author, Jack Crandall. Several perplexing situations arise during the engagements.

Letitia Brown, a friend of Floy, furnishes a great amount of chatter and helps keep up the interest of the plot. A good climax is reached when Mr. Hooker congratulates the wrong man on the engagement of his daughter.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

A PAIR OF SIXES

George Nettleton and T. Boggs John are business partners in the Eureka Digestive Pill Co. They fight over rare ingredients and a violet sugar coating for their pills and through their quarrel lose their best salesman, Tony Toler, and a great "haul," through Mr. Applegate.

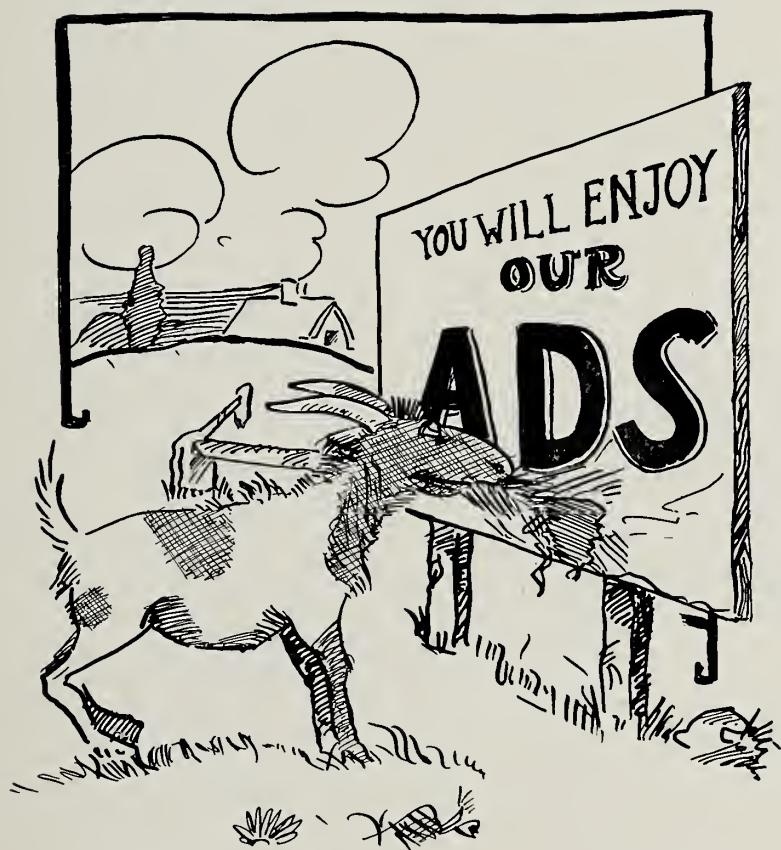

They decide to dissolve partnership and Vanderholt, their lawyer, is called to settle the dispute that arises. A game of poker is played and the loser, T. Boggs John, is to be Nettleton's butler for one year.

Complications are entered into, which almost cause the loss of fortunes and the breaking off of John's engagement to Florence Cole.

But through the cleverness of Florence the whole situation is cleared and business and love affairs come out happily.

VISION

Vision is more than one of the five senses. It is a man's sixth sense as well. For in its broader meaning it holds man's whole power of achievement. The master builder must see his bridge spanning some great gorge long before a single line is drawn up on the blue print.

Vision Prepares and Youth Builds

Vision sees demand even before demand comes reality and what vision sees the resources of this store bring into being. It has been the consistent purpose of this store to lift business above the level of a mere matter of DOLLARS AND CENTS.

We Sell Satisfaction

You understand we sell satisfaction—that's part of what you pay for—It is the business of this store to do this for you—We appreciate your visit to this store.

LOVE YOUR WORK

The man who loves his work, shows it by the way he looks after it. And the money he makes depends largely upon his love for his work. If you love the joys of life, it will cost you money; but love your work and it will make you money.

So it pays to love your work and keep your account with this bank.

Water Supply for domestic purposes

The name of Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., from its inception in 1866, has been associated with water supply. In every farming community of the world may be found the products of this plant—supplying water economically for every purpose.

To the urban dweller the name is associated with pumping equipment for supplying soft water from cisterns for use in the home.

The entire plant shown below is given over to the manufacture of dependable, domestic water supply equipment.

"Jahn & Ollier Again"

ACHIEVEMENT

The goal of every ambitious man and firm is typified in the rapid growth of the Jahn & Ollier Engraving Company—the universal esteem in which their art and plates are held by the large national advertisers—and the enviable reputation for prompt deliveries which they enjoy.

The mission of all advertising illustrations is to produce sales and the growth of this firm has been measured by the success its customers have had in obtaining new business thru using "J&O picture salesmen."

Thirty thousand square feet of floor space (4 floors) and over two hundred and fifty skilled employees are required to meet the constant demand for "J&O" commercial photographs, art, color process plates and photo engraving (one complete floor is devoted to color process work).

Intelligent supervision of all work by many skillful office service men eliminates your troubles. Sales service men sent everywhere.
